

EXTRA

2 O'CLOCK.

CAN THEY DO IT?

Now Possibilities for the Democrats in the United States Senate.

They May Gain Seven Members of the Upper House.

Mr. Morton's Vote, Then, the Re-publican's Only Bar.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The amazement and consternation of the Republican officials in Washington grows daily as the magnitude of Tuesday's Democratic tide grows more evident.

First they had to concede that the Democrats had carried the House of Representatives "by a small majority." Then they saw that majority swell and swell until the Republican minority was reduced to a practically helpless body.

And now it is the control of the upper house, the once stately Senate, which the present dominant party seems apparently slipping from its grasp.

There are the most (to the Democrats) hopeful indications this morning that New York, New Hampshire, Illinois, Kansas, South Dakota and Wisconsin will send Democratic Senators in place of Republicans to the Fifty-second Congress.

Behold them, the Republican majority of fourteen reduced to a majority of two. But even that meagre majority is not fully assured, for there is information from Colorado which casts at least a shade of doubt on Senator Teller's chances of return.

Given Senators from the first six States named and having one from Colorado added, the Democrats would use the Republicans.

The state of affairs at the Capital would then be entirely reversed.

A Republican Administration would be left, it is true, but it would be deprived of the support of a Republican Congress and would have lost seriously through the failure of numbers of the party's most energetic men to secure a reelection.

Vice-President Morton's vote would be the only bar to the Democrats' possession of the Senate, and that only on the strictest of party questions.

The chances which would thus obtain for new economic and tariff legislation are self-evident.

"All things work together for the good of them who love their country," was the perversion of an old declaration uttered by an enthusiastic Democrat who took in all these possibilities, last evening.

New York's Senatorship.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
ALBANY, Nov. 7.—With an almost certain majority of four to count on, at the start, in the joint ballot of the New York State Legislature, and with the possibilities involved in the outcome of six contests over seats in the Assembly, there is no reason why the Democrats should not be counting confidently, as they are, on the election of a United States Senator from their party to succeed Mr. Evans.

The contests are in Yates County, Clinton County, Montgomery County, the First Dutchess District, Second Saratoga and Third Otsego.

These contests will make lively times at the next session, but out of it all the Democracy expects to come to a manner adding to the dignity and importance of Tuesday's triumph in the country over.

In the talk about the proper man to elect to the United States Senate, Gov. Hill figures most prominently, yet there is a disposition in some quarters to reject that the candidate should be a New York City man; and a list of prominent metropolitan Democrats is called up sufficiently long in itself to inspire respect for a party which, from a single city, could summon so many men fit for the place and the responsibility.

Congressman Flower, Col. F. A. Conkling, Eugene Kelly, Frederick H. Condit, Henry L. Clinton and Gen. H. W. Stinson, of Brooklyn, are only a few of the names mentioned in this connection. Grover Cleveland is another.

It Looks Like Morris in Connecticut To-Day.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 7.—The unofficial footing from the face of the first set of returns from every town, now received at the Secretary of State's office, gives Morris, Dem., for Governor a popular majority of 77.

Complications in Michigan.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—There is yet doubt in the Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Congressional districts, and a contest seems inevitable in the Eleventh, where one Republican ballot was thrown out because of an error. Official returns are necessary to fix the standing of the State Senate. The House is Democratic.

The Nebraska Result.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—The bulletin at Republican headquarters announces the election of the entire Republican ticket, with the exception of Governor, by pluralities ranging from 1,000 to 4,000. Dem., for Governor, will get about 1,000 plurality.

A Contest in North Dakota.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7.—Johnson, R., for Congress, has a plurality of about 6,000. For Governor, 10,000. Benton, the Democratic candidate for Congress will contest Johnson's seat.

Mary Doyle's Body Found.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The body of the seventh victim of the Leland House fire on Oct. 10 was discovered in the ruins this afternoon. It was buried beyond recognition, but was otherwise identified as that of Mary Doyle, a servant.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Tipsters' Opinions as to the Various Winners To-Day.

Programme of the Several Events to Be Run Off.

There should be a great crowd of race-goers at Elizabeth today. The New Jersey Jockey Club presents a most excellent programme of seven races, and the contestants are so evenly matched in each race that the racing is bound to be close and interesting.

First race, 11:30 a. m. There is a very great chance to win the first race. He is in light weight, and his last attempt at Linden shows that he is in rare good form. He should win. Prince James ran a very good race a few days ago and he should be good enough to get the place, while Kyrie II, ought to beat the others.

Second race, 1:30 p. m. This race is in much better shape than the first, and it is hard to see how he can be beaten to-day, notwithstanding he is giving him up to weight to good performers. He ought to win. Lavinia Belle should be second, and Now or Never, who is in very light and who appears to be regaining his old form, ought to be no worse than third.

Third race, 3:30 p. m. Scipio is the best horse in the third race, and if his owners will put up a jockey, and not a stable boy like McClay, they ought to put the purse to their credit. Peter showed up well yesterday, and he may be second, with Lepanto close up to him.

Fourth race, 5:30 p. m. Backer ought to carry off the money in the fourth event without much difficulty. Madstone ought to be the closest to him at the finish, while old Kurus should beat the others.

The new colors of Michael Dwyer ought to be carried to victory in the fifth race. Aurania is his entry, and though she ran a disappointing race Thursday she certainly ought to be good enough to beat the lot against her to-day. Bill Barnes may be second and No. 6, who showed very well in her last effort, ought to be third.

Sixth race, 7:30 p. m. This race is in much better shape than the first, and it is hard to see how he can be beaten to-day, notwithstanding he is giving him up to weight to good performers. He ought to win. Lavinia Belle should be second, and Now or Never, who is in very light and who appears to be regaining his old form, ought to be no worse than third.

Seventh race, 9:30 p. m. This race is in much better shape than the first, and it is hard to see how he can be beaten to-day, notwithstanding he is giving him up to weight to good performers. He ought to win. Lavinia Belle should be second, and Now or Never, who is in very light and who appears to be regaining his old form, ought to be no worse than third.

From Other Morning Papers:
First Race—Al Farrow, Punter, Jr.
Second Race—Riley, Seniors.
Third Race—Riley, Seniors.
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors.

Elizabeth Results:
First Race—Punter, Jr. 11.00
Second Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Third Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00

Post Meeting at Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—Pools were sold at Souther & Co.'s Exchange to-night on the races at Elizabeth as follows:

First Race—Punter, Jr. 11.00
Second Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Third Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

STEVE O'BRIEN COULDN'T VOTE

Warrants Were Out for Jimmy O'Brien's Brother and Nephew.

Now They Are Held on Charges of Illegal Registration.

The story that Stephen O'Brien, brother of ex-Sheriff James O'Brien, and his son, Lawrence, had been arrested for illegal registration, was received with a great deal of surprise by friends of the O'Briens to-day.

Steve, as he is familiarly called, has been known as a voter, and a prominent politician in the Twenty-first Ward for more than thirty years, and his friends could not believe that he had lost a city residence, notwithstanding he and his son are held in $500 bail each by Police Justice McMahon, in the Yorkville Police Court.

Steve and his son registered as voters from the house of Mrs. English, No. 240 East Fifty-second street, which is in the Twenty-second Election District of the Twentieth Assembly District.

It was stated that they had no residence there, but had in fact, Long Island, and that they had been given into the hands of Detective Schell, of the Twenty-third Precinct, to serve on them when they presented themselves to vote.

Neither voted, and yesterday, knowing that the warrants were out for them, they appeared before Justice McMahon, and ex-Senator Backer, to carry off the money in the fourth event without much difficulty.

Madstone ought to be the closest to him at the finish, while old Kurus should beat the others.

The new colors of Michael Dwyer ought to be carried to victory in the fifth race. Aurania is his entry, and though she ran a disappointing race Thursday she certainly ought to be good enough to beat the lot against her to-day.

Bill Barnes may be second and No. 6, who showed very well in her last effort, ought to be third.

Sixth race, 7:30 p. m. This race is in much better shape than the first, and it is hard to see how he can be beaten to-day, notwithstanding he is giving him up to weight to good performers.

Seventh race, 9:30 p. m. This race is in much better shape than the first, and it is hard to see how he can be beaten to-day, notwithstanding he is giving him up to weight to good performers.

From Other Morning Papers:
First Race—Al Farrow, Punter, Jr.
Second Race—Riley, Seniors.
Third Race—Riley, Seniors.
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors.
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors.

Elizabeth Results:
First Race—Punter, Jr. 11.00
Second Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Third Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00

Post Meeting at Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—Pools were sold at Souther & Co.'s Exchange to-night on the races at Elizabeth as follows:

First Race—Punter, Jr. 11.00
Second Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Third Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fourth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Fifth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Sixth Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00
Seventh Race—Riley, Seniors. 11.00

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

Probably Lost With All Hands.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 7.—Word comes from Summerside, P. E. I., that a pilot picked up at Fish Island several envelopes bearing Swedish postmarks and addressed to persons "on the bark Falke." Numerous letters similarly addressed, a gold-headed cane, a box containing a small amount of money and considerable other wreckage have also been picked up along the coast.

CALL ON BYRNES FOR HELP.

West Side Residents Demand that Evil Resorts be Cleared Out.

Injury to Property and Morals on Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Streets.

A quiet of increased property-holders on West Thirty-ninth and West Fortieth streets, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, have visited Acting Superintendent Byrnes at Police headquarters and made the strongest kind of a complaint against a number of disorderly houses located on those streets.

Inspector Byrnes's callers were Dr. Oetzer, pastor of the Reformed Church in West Fortieth street; Dr. Sill, in charge of St. Christopher's Episcopal Church at Seventh avenue and Forty-ninth street; Business Manager Charles Barton, of the Casino; Head Estate Agent Edward Dodd, of Seventh avenue, and Steward Frank McGurk, of the Hotel Normandie, who leases the houses 236 and 238 West Fortieth street.

These gentlemen comprised a committee at a recent meeting of property-owners, who Dr. Oetzer acted as chairman of the committee, and protested against the existence of these dens of vice, and who were determined that the disorderly houses should be effectively rooted out of the neighborhood.

Appeals to the different policemen on the route have had little effect, the indignant owners claim, as the numerous personal complaints made during the last two years to Capt. Murphy, of the West Thirty-seventh street station, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

Dr. Oetzer lives at 248 West Fortieth street, and at last decided to present a formal and substantial complaint at headquarters.

Dr. Oetzer said he had been elected to the committee, and he related to the inspector the indignities and insults to which he had been personally subjected.

THE CHINESE INVASION.

A sort of terror has seized the younger members of the Sabbath school, he said, owing to the existence of these places of ill repute, and the young people dare not travel that part of West Fortieth street east of the church to Seventh avenue.

Dr. Sill, of St. Christopher's Church, presented facts similar to those advanced by Dr. Oetzer, and Real Estate Agent Dodd told how difficult it was to lease houses or flats to respectable tenants in the neighborhood.

He has on his hands at present a large number of flats which he absolutely is unable to rent to respectable parties, and as a result property is depreciating in value rapidly.

Manager Barton, who lives on West Thirty-ninth street, and Steward McGurk, living at 236 West Fortieth street, also spoke in strong terms of denunciation of the notorious resorts, and when all had finished the Committee submitted to Inspector Byrnes a list of the places complained of, with the names of the objectionable houses and the names of the owners.

The Committee strongly urged the inspector to investigate the matter promptly. They asserted that they had suffered greatly for two years, but forbearance was no longer to be thought of.

The inspector assured the Committee that he would give their complaints careful and immediate consideration, and this is tantamount to saying that a wholesale raid will probably be made on these resorts ere many days have passed.

The moral air in the locality certainly needs to be purified, and Acting Capt. Byrnes said he would endeavor to suppress the evil complained of.

IT LEADS IN REFORMS.
Some Industrial Insurance Companies are frauds. Next Sunday's World will print further disclosures by wire.

No Wonder They Distance Death.
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa is coming from the front as the home of octogenarian sprinters and athletes. Over a year ago A. C. Owen, of this city, who has passed his four-score years, challenged any man in the United States of his age to run a forty-yard foot-race for $1,000 a side, but he has never yet received a challenger.

Now comes Dr. L. H. Garfield, of Algona, nearing the eightieth mile post, who has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

He has accepted the challenge. He is a bicyclist in the United States for a man of his age.

MORE ATTACKS ON STANLEY.

Rose Troup and Mr. Bartlett Contradict His Latest Statements.

The Explorer to Attend a Dinner at the Union League Club To-Night.

Explorer Stanley could not be seen at the Everett House this morning, for he has given strict orders that no visitors will be received until after noon. He never comes out of his room until 12 o'clock. Major Pond was found in his office in Fourth avenue. He said to an Evening World reporter:

"I cannot speak authoritatively for Mr. Stanley, but I am sure to understand that he has said all he intends to say in regard to the Bartlett affair. He has given a full and complete account of the doings at Camp Yamoussa according to the best information that he possesses, and he is willing to let the matter rest on that point and bears no responsibility."

"If he should be compelled to reply to any statement made by those who have faulted with his history of the case, the controversy would be prolonged indefinitely, and he would have no time for anything else."

"I do not think he will care to reply either to Mr. Rose Troup or to Mr. Bartlett. In the interview with the correspondent of the London Times, Stanley said he would be glad to have the matter brought before an English court, for he is not a native of this country, and he is not a native of this country, and he is not a native of this country."

It is expected that Stanley will receive a few more late afternoon calls, and take a little fresh air in Central Park, after which he will attend the dinner given in his honor by Mr. Quintard and the Stanley Club at the Union League Club.

Meanwhile Stanley's subordinates of the rear column and their friends seem determined to keep up their attacks upon him. How Troup, who is a native of this country, has been given a reply to the assertion made by Stanley in his talk to the New York reporters on the subject of the Bartlett case.

He charges that although Stanley knew of Bartlett's incompetency and other deficiencies that made him an unsafe man to put in charge of such an important expedition, he gave him the command of the rear column.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

Major Bartlett showed great fairness toward the men, and showed that the disastrous failure of the rear column was due to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men, and not to the incompetence of the men.

BRUISED BY BABY'S HOOF.

Ladderman Uffelman, of Truck 6, is Laid Up.

Terribly Fawed by a Favorite but Fractious Fire Horse.

Ladderman Charles H. Uffelman of Truck 6 in Canal street will not be in proper condition to fight fires for at least two weeks. He is confined to his bed at 320 Henry street nursing a frightfully mutilated foot, the result of a savage attack which one of the truck horses played on his facial prominence yesterday morning.

Uffelman's nasal organ is broken and battered all out of its natural shape. A gash three inches long runs across his forehead and he displays a pair of as beautifully colored optics as can be found in a day's hunt through the East side.

Still, Uffelman is cheerful and bears no resentment toward the fractious animal who so violently assailed him. As he puts it himself he is lucky to be alive.

The horse is called Baby. The name is a misnomer.

Baby stands 16½ hands high and tips the scale at 1,700 pounds. He is eight years old and a Kentucky-bred equine.